

The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974.

Policy Statement

Concept Cables Limited (the company) recognises its responsibilities under the Health and Safety at Work Act for ensuring, so far as it is reasonably practicable, the Health, Safety and Welfare of its employees.

The company attaches the greatest importance to Health and Safety considering this to be a management responsibility ranking equally with other management functions within the organisation.

It is the policy of this company to take all reasonable and practicable precautions for the prevention of accidents and dangerous occurrences and for the creation of working conditions that safeguard employees. To this end, the company will allocate the necessary resources and enlist the active support of all employees, upon whom duties are also imposed by the Health and Safety at Work Act.

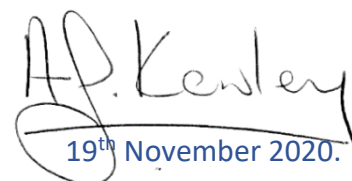

The company regard the standards set by the various relevant statutory provisions as the minimum standard that must be achieved and will endeavour to improve upon these standards where reasonably practicable.

This policy and the organisation, arrangements and safety rules that form part of it will be reviewed regularly and modified and updated as necessary.

Objectives

- To provide adequate control of the Health and Safety risks arising from our work activities.
- To consult with employees on matters affecting their Health and Safety.
- To provide and maintain safe plant and equipment.
- To ensure safe handling, storage and use of substances.
- To provide information, instruction and supervision for employees.
- To ensure all employees are competent to do their tasks, and to give adequate training.
- To prevent accidents and cases of work-related ill health.
- To maintain safe and healthy working conditions.
- To review and revise this policy as necessary at regular intervals.
